HOUSE BILL NO. 20 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on second reading and passage to engrossment,

House bill No. 20, A bill to be entitled "An Act to prohibit the exchange, barter and sale of spirituous, vinous, malt liquors or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication within ten miles of the State University of Texas, and all branches thereof, including the Agricultural and Mechanical College, except for medicinal, mechanical or sacramental purposes and fixing the penalty therefor, repealing all laws in conflict herewith, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Question—Shall the bill be passed to engrossment?

Mr. Terrell of Bexar moved that the House recess to 8 o'clock p. m. today, and the motion was lost.

Mr. Looney offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend the bill by striking out of the caption and out of Sections 1 and 2, the following language: "The State University of Texas and all branches thereof, including the Agricultural and Mechanical College," and insert in lieu thereof in each place the following: "Any State educational institution supported in whole or in part by appropriation from the State's general revenue."

Question—Shall the amendment be adopted?

Mr. Terrell of Bexar raised the point of order on consideration of the amendment stating that the same is not germane to the purposes of the bill, as the bill, as originally introduced, is a local bill, while the amendment would change it to a general bill. That even though the bill as drawn be a general bill, it was still not germane as it took in outside territory not contemplated by said bill.

The Speaker overruled the point of order.

Mr. Terrell of Bexar appealed from the ruling of the Chair.

Pending the appeal from the ruling of the Chair, Mr. Ray was called to the chair.

Question—Shall the ruling of the Chair be sustained?

Yeas and nays were demanded, and the ruling of the Chair was sustained by the following vote:

Mr. Turney raised the point of order on consideration of the bill on the ground that said bill is a local bill, and that it has not been advertised for thirty days in the counties affected by said bill, to wit: Travis, Brazos and Galveston.

The Speaker overruled the point of order.

Question recurring on the amendment by Mr. Looney, it was adopted.

Mr. Looney offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend the bill, Section 3, line 26, by striking out the word "and" between the numerals 1 and 2, and insert in lieu thereof the word "or."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Terrell of Bexar offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 20 by inserting after the word "punished," on page 1, line 28, in lieu of the balance of Section 3 the following: "by death by hanging or burning."

Mr. Fuller raised the point of order on consideration of the amendment on the ground that it is not germane to the purpose of the bill.

The Speaker sustained the point of order.

Mr. Looney moved the previous question on the passage of the bill to engrossment, and the motion was seconded.

Mr. Terrell of Bexar raised the following point of order on the motion for the previous question:

"I raise the point of order that House bill No. 20 has not been discussed, although members of the House demanded the right to discuss same, but the previous question was moved and carried as soon as the bill was read."

The Speaker overruled the point of order.

Mr. Looney then asked unanimous consent of the House to withdraw the motion for the previous question, to which request the Speaker announced that there was objection.

Mr. Gilmore raised the point of order that the mover of the motion for the previous question has the right, under the Rules of the House, to withdraw the motion without the consent of the House.

The Speaker sustained the point of order.

Mr. Looney then withdrew the motion for the previous question.

Question—Shall House bill No. 20 be passed to engrossment?

Mr. Robertson of Travis moved that the House adjourn until 9 o'clock a. m. tomorrow.

Mr. Adams moved that the House adjourn until 10 o'clock a. m. tomorrow.

Question first recurring on the motion of Mr. Adams to adjourn until 10 o'clock a. m. tomorrow, it was lost.

Question then recurring on the motion of Mr. Robertson of Travis to adjourn until 9 o'clock a. m. tomorrow, it was lost.

Mr. Terrell of Bexar moved that the House take recess to 8 o'clock p. m. today, and the motion was lost.

House bill No. 20 was then passed to engrossment.

ADJOURNMENT.

On motion of Mr. Kennedy, the House, at 7 o'clock p. m., adjourned until 10 o'clock a. m. tomorrow.
